

On the mind of the Rev. Adrian Dannhauser

There is no brighter promise and no greater love than salvation declared through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The truth of the Gospel is that he so loves the world, so values us, that he chose to share our life in order to conquer, once and for all, the forces of sin and death that separate us from God and one another.

Our Easter worship services tell that story and proclaim that truth, as foretold by the prophets: “Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.” (Isaiah 25:9)

This truth lives on today, manifest in the lives of his followers. Even in our darkest moments, his saving grace is near. Will you join me in offering this prayer?

Lift up my eyes, O God.

Lift up my eyes to see you.

Lift up my soul to meet you.

Throw open the doors of heaven,
and let your glory shine round about me.

In moments of crucifixion, assure me of resurrection.

In moments of resurrection, help me proclaim freedom and hope.

Instill in me the confidence of your deep abiding love, so I may surrender myself to your will and rise when you call my name.

FREEING JESUS WRAP-UP SESSION – Thursday, April 28

7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Over the season of Lent, several of us have been reading through a book by Diana Butler Bass entitled, Freeing Jesus. During these weeks, this book has led us to consider various identities of Jesus—Friend, Teacher, Savior, Lord, Way, Presence.

One of the most important things we've discussed during this time is the way in which, while Scripture says that we as human beings are made in the image and likeness of God, we are constantly trying to re-make Jesus in our own image and likeness, instead.

In a final session open to the whole congregation, we will discuss some of the common ways people re-make Jesus in their own image and likeness, and consider other identities of Jesus that we (including, Diana Butler Bass) may have missed. Join the discussion in the Parish House or on Zoom. Email the Rev. Dr. Nate Lee at nlee@churchoftheincarnation.org with any questions.

Followed by a time of fellowship and refreshments for those who attend in the Parish House.

Dr. Nate Lee at nlee@churchoftheincarnation.org to reserve yours today or for more information about young adult ministries.
